

ANTI-POVERTY 16 - 22 October 2011 WEEK

Events

6:00 pm @ Darwin Community Arts, Chambers Crescent Theatre, Malak.

Experience the taste of Multicultural Darwin at a Community Dinner on Monday 17th October to coincide with Anti-Poverty Week. Guests will have the opportunity to chat with people from all over the world and to learn from their stories and experiences. Dinner will be catered for by My Sister's Kitchen, so tasty and authentic flavours are guaranteed. We will also have special guest performers including One Mob, One County and The Tongan Youth Group.

Panel Discussions @ Museum and Art Gallery NT (MAGNT), Darwin.

5:00 pm - "You wouldn't read about it"

A panel of media identities and opinion makers will explore the role of the media in the public discourse on poverty. Presented by the Northern Territory Council of Social Service. (NTCOSS) and moderated by former Chief Minister, Clare Martin.

6:15 pm - "The Relationship between Health and Poverty"

The event is sponsored by St Vincent de Paul Society. Panel discussions will be followed by light refreshments at Cornucopia. Panellists include; Father Frank Brennan SJ AO, John Paterson - AMSANT, Jenny Cleary - NT Health and Fran Pagdin - Top End Mental Health Services and more. Moderated by Colin McDonald QC - Chair of Royal Darwin Hospital

3:00 pm @ Charles Darwin University, Casuarina Campus.

The Hon Kevin Rudd MP, Australian Foreign Affairs Minister, will deliver an Anti-Poverty Presentation at the Mal Nairn Theatre.

5:15 pm @ Northern Territory Library, Parliament House.

Mark "Squiz" Squirrel, author of From Arafat to Everest, set off in May 2006 for the summit of Mount Everest to raise awareness of global hunger. Squiz knows only too well the realities of hunger, having been an aid worker in Sudan, Afghanistan and Palestine. His is a climbing story with crevasse action and avalanche thrills, which is delivered from a humanitarian standpoint that puts it all into perspective. Proudly supported by Darwin City Council.

9am - 12 pm @ East Point Road, Fannie Bay, 2nd BBQ.

Arts In The Long Grass Open day. Darwin Larrakia Nation's HEAL 'Arts In The Long Grass Program' encourages long grassers and other homeless people to meet and work on painting, weaving and other activities. For further details call Chandran on 0433 100 834.

9am - 1 pm 'Picnic in the Park' followed by 1 - 3pm 'Entrepreneurs of Sound' concert @ Ozanam Community Centre, Westralia Street, Stuart Park.

Throughout the week the Ozanam Centre will host activities to support community awareness about people who are homeless and disadvantaged through poverty. Please Call 8981 4374 for further details.

5.30pm - A panel on "Law, Justice and Poverty"

Hosted by NAAJA @ NAAJA, 61 Smith Street, Darwin. Full details TBC, please check closer to the date.
