

NORTHERN TERRITORY

Relationships Australia NT (RANT) is part of one of Australia's largest community based organisations whose vision is communities where relationships are respectful, diversity is valued and all people have a true sense of belonging and connection.

RANT is committed to protecting children and young people from harm.

Children's Counsellor Alice Springs

We are seeking a qualified and experienced children's counsellor to work in our Holding Children Together program and provide counselling for children who have experienced complex trauma. The work also involves working with parents/carers and other services to develop a Care Team to support the child's healing. It is important to have a passion for social justice, equality and a genuine care for people who have experienced interpersonal trauma within our community. The counsellor will:

- Make a genuine difference to the lives of some of Australia's most disadvantaged children and their families.
- Work supported by a Child and Family aboriginal support worker
- Work from a trauma informed perspective.

Applicants will require extensive screening, referee checks, identity check, Ochre Card and Criminal History check.

RANT provides, ongoing trainings, mentoring, clinical supervision and professional development entitlements (of up to $3000 per annum,) together with generous salary sacrificing.

Position Description (including Selection Criteria) and Basic Employment Conditions are available in Current Vacancies at www.nt.relationships.org.au

Applications should be forwarded to hr@ra-nt.org.au and include a Cover Letter, Current CV, Statement addressing Selection Criteria and at least two referees.

To discuss details about the position duties please call Doug on 08 8950 4100.

Applications by Commencement of Business
Monday 8th August 2016

Aboriginal people and people from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply.

www.nt.relationships.org.au