

General Manager, Northern Territory

About the organisation

Jesuit Social Services works to build a just society. We stand in solidarity with those in need, expressing a faith that promotes justice. We work to build a just society where all people can live to their full potential by partnering with the community to support those in need and working to change policies, practices, ideas and values that perpetuate inequality, prejudice and exclusion.

About the role

This key organisational role drives our strategic agenda in the Northern Territory, realised through leading program development and sustainability, policy and advocacy development, and developing and fostering key stakeholder partnerships.

We seek an experienced leader who has worked practically and strategically with practitioners and senior managers to demonstrate impact and outcomes. You will also provide leadership to our Northern Territory staff teams. This is a full time role, based in Darwin.

Candidate Requirements

This role will suit a candidate with the following skills and experience:

- Significant leadership experience
- Capacity to deliver on high-level strategic priorities
- Understanding of disadvantage and complex needs, in Aboriginal and remote contexts
- Excellent conceptual and written capabilities
- Capacity to engage at all levels of the organisation to drive internal and external facing initiatives
- Foster a culture of evidence based practice
- Build sustainable interventions that contribute to the organisations' capacity to influence social change

Attractive salary and salary packaging is offered together with ongoing professional and career development.
